PUBLIC RECORDS

Visitors should be aware that, subject to certain statutory exceptions, many documents and records maintained by the Miami County Municipal Court and Clerk's Office, including but not limited to electronic data, are public records under Ohio law. Therefore, information submitted through this website may be subject to disclosure pursuant to a public records request.

INFORMATION COLLECTED AND STORED AUTOMATICALLY

When you browse, read pages, or download information on this site, certain technical information about your visit is automatically gathered and stored. The information collected and stored about your visit is listed below:

- The Internet domain (for example, "xcompany.com" if you use a private Internet access account, or "yourschool.edu" if you connect from a university's domain) and IP address (an IP address is a number that is automatically assigned to your computer whenever you are surfing the Web) from which you access our website;
- The type of browser (e.g., Safari, Firefox, Netscape, Internet Explorer) and operating system (Macintosh, Unix, Windows) used to access our site;
- The date and time you access our site;
- The pages you visit; and
- If you linked to the Court's website from another website, the address of that website.

This information is only used to help make the site more useful for you. This data reveals the number of visitors to our site and the types of technology our visitors use. We never track or record information about individuals and their visits.

COOKIES

When you visit some websites, their web servers generate pieces of information known as cookies. Some cookies collect personal information to recognize your computer in the future. This is not the case at the Court's Website, where we only use non-persistent cookies or "per-session cookies." These cookies do not collect personal information on users and they are erased as soon as you leave our website.

Per-session cookies serve technical purposes like providing seamless navigation through ketteringmunicipalcourt.com. These cookies do not permanently record data and they are not stored on your computer's hard drive. The Court's website cookies are stored in memory and are only available during an active browser session. Again, once you close your browser, the cookies disappear.

ONLINE FORMS AND E-MAIL

Our site's registration forms require users to give us contact information (like name and email address), method of payment, and demographic information. We use customer contact information from the registration forms to send the user information about our events. The customer's contact information is also used to contact the visitor when necessary. Information regarding method of payment is collected for registration purposes only.
